

Gutsy Women Travel Anticipates Your Concerns over Ebola

GWT Operator Amends Cancellation Policy to Provide Full Refunds Up to Day of Departure

Overseas Adventure Travel, the largest U.S. travel company to Africa and operating agency for Gutsy Women Travel 2015 trips, announced that it has amended its cancellation policy for travelers with 2014-2015 reservations to Africa, effective immediately. Gutsy Women Travelers booked on any of O.A.T.'s adventures to Southern and East Africa will now be able to cancel their reservation up to the day of their departure without penalty

GWT operator has spoken with scores of travelers in order to make a decision around their cancellation policy, and while we have received very few cancellations to date, we want to be sensitive to and respectful of our travelers who do have concerns. The tour operator has also been working closely with their offices in Cape Town, South Africa, Arusha, Tanzania and Marrakesh, Morocco and communicating regularly with travel partners and guides in Namibia, Zimbabwe, Zambia, Botswana, and Kenya. Based on their information and this amazing cancellation policy, GWT will continue to promote all scheduled 2015 departures.

GWT does not offer any adventures in West Africa. In addition, to the new cancellation policy, travelers will now have the option to change their reservation to any another GWT adventure operated by OAT without penalty. To date, fewer than 2% of travelers booked on an Africa adventure have cancelled their upcoming departures.

If travelers have any further questions, please contact April Merenda, President & Co-Founder of Gutsy Women Travel at april@gutsywomentravel.com or call (866) IMGUTSY press 1. For further information on 2015 trips, go to www.gutsywomentravel.com